Rakhine Government receives US Senate Committee member

Sittway, April 03

The Rakhine State Government received a US delegation, led by Charlotte B. Oldham-Moore, senior professional staff member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, at the State Government's office in Rakhine State on 4 April.

They discussed matters related to the resettlement of returnees, the status of preparation at the reception and transit centers for the returnees, international aid for reconstruction works, monthly trips for gathering information by local and foreign media to Maungtaw region, the construction of houses for people in the IDP camps, and the aid provided by the United Nations (UN) and the international non-governmental organizations (INGO) in the state.

The US delegation also met with representatives of political parties, officials from the UN and INGO, and Muslims in Thet Kal Pyin Village and Aung Mingalar Ward.
