Independent media group including foreign journalists collects news in Maungtau

Maungtau, May 22

An independent media group including foreign journalists arrived Inn Din village on 22 May 2018 and met the local people to gather news.

Then, the media group went to Kainggyi (Mro) village in Maungtau Township, and interviewed Village Administrator. They continued to the Maungtau District General Administration Department, where Maungtau District Deputy Commissioner briefed on terrorists attacks by ARSA in 2016 and 2017 and actions taken against the ARSA terrorists in accordance with the law, measures for food sufficiency, and readiness for repatriation of returnees from Bangladesh.

They proceeded to Hla Pho Khaung transit centre where a person in charge of the camp detailed out the readiness for the repatriation process and replied to questions raised by the media personnel.

The media group visited Pan Taw Pyin village where the Village Administrator briefed on terrorist attacks, the process of repatriation, new village construction, matters of NV Cards, and development and socio-economic status of the region. Then, they went to the Kanyintan market and collected news.
